Musika Journal is a revival of the scholarly periodical published from 1977 to 1979 during the incumbency of Dr. Jose Maceda as chair of the Department of Asian Music. This refereed journal aims to provide a forum for the discussion of traditional musics in the Philippines and Southeast Asia, as well as the new music of contemporary composers from this geographic area. It is prepared by an Editorial Board comprised of faculty members and researchers from the College of Music, College of Arts and Letters and other units of the University of the Philippines that maintains close linkage with the UP Center for Ethnomusicology.

Musika Journal is published by the UP Center for Ethnomusicology.

The views and opinions expressed in this volume are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the official position of the UP Center for Ethnomusicology, Musika Journal, or any of the persons who are involved in the production of the journal. Examples of analysis performed within the articles are only examples. Assumptions made within the analysis are not reflective of the position of the Center and the Editorial Board and Staff.
